August - 29765 - M2-5A

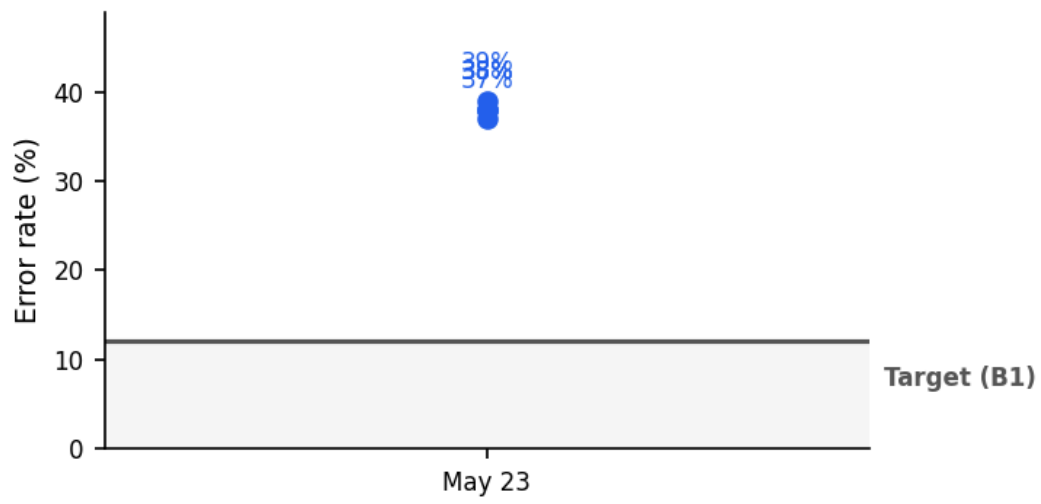

Dear August,

August, I really enjoyed reading your writing and appreciate how you expressed your feelings about friendship! You have great ideas, but there are some areas to improve on for clarity.

- Capitalisation and spacing errors: Remember to start sentences with a capital letter and use correct spacing. For example, you wrote “leader again So, in the same time” but it should be, “leader again So, at] the same time.”
- Problems with nouns: Make sure to use the correct forms of nouns. In your text, you wrote “some friend workes,” but it should be “some friends with their work.”
- Problems with verbs: Pay attention to verb tenses and forms. You wrote “I felt sad” when you meant to say “I feel sad,” and remember that “my friend make me sure” should be “my friend makes me sure.”

Keep practicing, and I can’t wait to see your improvements next time!

The solid line in the chart below shows the B1 target error rate (12%). Your goal is to keep your error rate below this line. The chart tracks your progress over time.

I scanned your writing for errors and underlined the corrections below. Carefully comparing the corrected and original versions will help you become more aware of common mistakes and improve your writing skills.

I like to be happy. Sometimes, I feel sad because something I don't like has to happen, like this time. I had to be a leader again. So, at the same time, I like it because my friend chose me. That is my friend, who makes me sure that I can help some friends with their work. And another thing I can do too. So I just feel happy and laugh all the time. I want my friend to feel the same emotion as I do.

30334 - 30334 -

Dear 30334,

Subject-verb agreement errors (e.g., 'it make' → 'it makes') need attention at A1 level. Verb pattern errors (e.g., 'like to reading' → 'like reading') indicate need for A2 gerund/infinitive practice. Spelling and word choice errors (e.g., 'sumething', 'Sumetime', 'su') suggest need for basic vocabulary review.

The solid line in the chart below shows the B1 target error rate (12%). Your goal is to keep your error rate below this line. The chart tracks your progress over time.

My name is Milin. I also go by Yume online. I don't really like myself that much, but I'll try. The thing I like is me trying to support other people, and I also like how cheerful I can be even if it's just an act. I don't really show it much here because I'm not that close with anyone here, and I also like how I have true friends even if they aren't near me. The least thing is how I try to always look at the positive way, even in person, but this thing has been making me stressed lately that all I can think of.

1. Capitalisation errors (R:ORTH): You wrote "Sleep" at the start of a sentence, but it should be "sleep" instead.
2. Spelling mistakes (R:SPELL): You wrote "brothern," but the correct spelling is "brother."
3. Problems with verb form (R:VERB:FORM): You wrote "breathing" when you should have used the infinitive "breathe."

Keep practicing, and your writing will become even clearer!

What I like most about me is I can sleep and breathe at the same time. I can do cooking; sometimes it's burned, but I can give it to my brother fause. If I really like the story, I can read it all day long non-stop. I can draw a cartoon character a little bit in my free time when I'm at home.

Dear Beya,

Your writing shows a great sense of self-awareness, particularly when you express your happiness about dancing and writing fiction. I could mostly understand what you were saying, but your communication and grade will improve a lot if you pay special attention to the following mistakes:

1. Problems with singular and plural nouns (R:NOUN:NUM): You wrote "the other things I like about me is that I'm good at studying." It is better to write "the other thing I like about me is that I'm good at studying."
2. Problems with nouns (R:NOUN): You wrote "I usually get high scone when I have an exam." It is better to write "I usually get high scores when I have an exam."
3. Spelling or capitalisation mistakes (R:SPELL): You wrote "I can speak move than 2 languages." It is better to write "I can speak more than 2 languages."

Dear Tietie,

You expressed a clear passion for music, especially your feelings when playing the trumpet in the marching band, which adds a personal touch to your writing. I could mostly understand what you were saying, but your communication and grade will improve a lot if you pay special attention to the following mistakes:

1. Problems with verb tense (R:VERB:TENSE): You wrote "I don't good with it." It is better to write "I'm not good with it."
2. Spelling or capitalisation mistakes (R:SPELL): You wrote "hoppy." It is better to write "happy."

3. Problems with singular and plural nouns (R:NOUN): You wrote “it the most hardest instrament.” It is better to write “it is the hardest instrument.”

I like my music even though I'm not good at it. But I feel happy when I play music. I'm in a marching band at school. I play the trumpet. For me, I think it's the hardest instrument in my life, or maybe not, because I have many things I never try like the violin or viola. I would like to try it but it too expensive for me and I'm not sure if I really want to try. And I used to be good at piano since I was in G.1. When I was in 01, I really liked piano. I learned it in yomoho. But now I'm not that good as before. TAT I don't know why. Maybe I stopped it for 5 years. But I'll try harder with music; maybe I'll be good at it :)
