Army - 29530 - M3-3A

Dear Army,

I really like how you wrote about basketball helping you make friends. It's clear that this sport is important to you. You also did a great job expressing your favorite part of playing basketball. To improve even further, try to be aware of the following errors which I noticed in your work.

- Capitalization: Always capitalize the first word of a sentence. You wrote "what I like most about me" but it should be "What I like most about myself."
- Subject-verb agreement: A singular subject needs a singular verb. You wrote "Basketball help me" but it should be "Basketball helps me."
- Subject-verb agreement: A plural subject needs a plural verb. You wrote "most of my friends that i have is from basketball" but it should be "Most of my friends that I have are from basketball."

The solid line in the chart below shows the B2 target error rate (7%). Your goal is to keep your error rate below this line. The chart tracks your progress over time.

Your writing feels honest and full of energy, especially when you talk about making new friends and the way you think about your own personality. - Spelling and word form: Double-check the spelling of common words, especially those with double letters. You wrote "personallity" but it should be "personality."

Writing Accuracy Feedback Report

Dear Elenna,

I love how you shared your passion for theater and performing. You explained so clearly why art, singing, dancing, and acting are such special ways for people to express themselves. It's wonderful that you've come back to doing what you love. To improve even further, try to be aware of the following errors which I noticed in your work.

- Capitalization: Always capitalize the word 'I' when it refers to yourself. You wrote "What i like most about me" but it should be "What I like most about me."
- Spelling: Check the spelling of longer words carefully. You wrote "beautifulost ways" but it should be "most beautiful ways."
- Punctuation: Use a comma before 'because' when it starts a new clause. You wrote "Im very glad that I came back to it. Because" but it should be "I'm very glad that I came back to it, because."

What I like most about me is that I do singing and acting. Because ever since I was little, I was a theater kid, and I would always love to see plays or musicals. I think one of the most beautiful ways for a human being to express themselves is by art, singing, dancing, and acting. Now, after a few years of not doing acting, I'm very glad that I came back to it, because I always believe you should do something you love.
