Dear Pun,

Your idea to celebrate the end of the year with a party in the classroom is very clear and thoughtful.

I could mostly understand what you were saying, but your communication and grade will improve a lot if you pay special attention to the following mistakes:

1. Problems with nouns (R:NOUN): using a word that does not fit the context. For example, you wrote "broad game". It is better to write "board game".
2. Problems with singular and plural nouns (R:NOUN:NUM): not using the plural form for things there are many of. For example, you wrote "some of Snack and drink". It is better to write "some snacks and drinks".
3. Missing verb (M:VERB): forgetting the verb "is" to connect the subject and adjective. For example, you wrote "it good". It is better to write "it is good".

The solid line in the chart below shows the B1 target error rate (12%). Your goal is to keep your error rate below this line. The chart tracks your progress over time.

Great idea, it is good to celebrate with our friends at the end of the year. We could either have a party in the classroom; it is easy to clean up. Then my friends and I will prefer some snacks and drinks for the party. We will watch a movie or a show during the party, then after that we will do some activities like board games or chess. My friend will order some KFC and pizza for the party. We will also have a dessert like ice creamor pancakes.

Dear Dragon,

I really liked how you clearly explained your preference for the classroom by contrasting it with the crowded atmosphere of a park.

I could mostly understand what you were saying, but your communication and grade will improve a lot if you pay special attention to the following mistakes:

1. Spelling or capitalisation mistakes (R:SPELL): you misspelled a proper noun. For example, you wrote "roblay". It is better to write "Roblox".
2. Capitalisation and spacing errors (R:ORTH): you used a capital letter in the middle of a sentence. For example, you wrote "because It's". It is better to write "because it's".
3. Problems with verb form (R:VERB:FORM): you used an infinitive instead of a gerund after the verb suggest. For example, you wrote "suggest to play". It is better to write "suggest playing".

The solid line in the chart below shows the B1 target error rate (12%). Your goal is to keep your error rate below this line. The chart tracks your progress over time.

That's really great to hear that we're having a party! I've been waiting for this.

In my opinion, I would prefer having a party in the classroom because it's private and there would be so many people at the park. So I rather have a party in the classroom.

For activities and games, I suggest playing roblox, watching a horror movie or maybe dancing because everyone loves those. Including me, also I went to watch a movie with my friends. It's fun and we enjoyed it, so that's the reason I suggested those activities.

For food and drinks, I really recommend pizza and McDonald's for food because it tastes very delicious and they are my favourite. For drinks, I'd love to have Pepsi, water and cola just because they're refreshing.

Dear Atom,

Your explanation of why partying outside is not ideal due to PM 2.5 shows a great ability to connect your ideas to real-world concerns.

I could mostly understand what you were saying, but your communication and grade will improve a lot if you pay special attention to the following mistakes:

1. Problems with subject-verb agreement (R:VERB:SVA): The verb must match the subject of the sentence. For example, you wrote “and tries to speak” and “my cousin work in”. It is better to write “and try to speak” and “my cousin works in”.
2. Capitalisation and spacing errors (R:ORTH): Ensure there is a space between words. For example, you wrote “indoor-safe ofcourse”. It is better to write “indoor-safe of course”.
3. Spelling or capitalisation mistakes (R:SPELL): Check the spelling of your words. For example, you wrote “marshmellow”. It is better to write “marshmallow”.

Dear Mrs Lake,

I'm so excited for our end of year party.

I suppose we should stay and have fun in the room. Due to the PM 2.5, partying outside is not ideal even in the park.

I suggest that we should keep it simple and fun, and indoor-safe of course.

Maybe like stuff bunny? a game where we stuff marshmallows in our mouths, and try to speak. It'll be fun!

The class has been craving pizza! I could order, there is one restaurant my cousin works in.

See you soon!

Atom
